Description

Superb Italian Stilnovo floor lamp with double pendulum from the 1970s. This floor lamp in black lacquered metal has a main pendulum arm and its independent reading light. The arms are fully articulated and their head is also adjustable. The main arm is a halogen with variable brightness and the reading light has a classic button. The main arm measures 158cm and the smallest 92cm. The very pretty base consists of a black plate resting on 2 "pyramidal" feet. This floor lamp is playful and elegant! The floor lamp went to the specialist restorer. The power cable is 260cm.
