Description

Stone fireplace from the Beaujolais country (Rhône) cut in the 17th century, from the Louis XIV period, in perfect condition. Its lintel provided with a table, cut in diamond point, at its ends, traversed by a generous torus underlining the hanger of its hearth which extends laterally on its returns, rests on straight feet provided with a molded reserve. Their bases are lined with a peripheral molding. Small usual restorations. The total depth, sealing included, is 72 cm for a useful 60 cm hearth. Its length at the body is 148 cm. The dimensions of its hearth are 119 cm wide and 99 cm high. You can visit our website: www.claudeaugustin.com
