

Silver Teapot France Circa 1913

Description

Baluster-shaped silver teapot resting on a pedestal decorated with gadroons. The body has straight sides underlined by vertical grooves on the hinged lid and the bottom of the body is swollen. The spout is short, embellished with a shell and foliage in its lower part. The brown wooden handle is cross-shaped. Louis XV style 950/1000 silver, Hallmarks Minerva Master Goldsmith: Vabre Elie, Paris 25 rue Palestro around 1913
Length: 23 cm Width: 12.5 cm Weight: 642 g
Condition: excellent

740 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Excellent

Material : Sterling silver

Height : 17 cm

<https://www.proantic.com/en/949917-silver-teapot-france-circa-1913.html>

Dealer

Lucas L&E

Argenterie ancienne, Arts liturgiques, Arts Russes, Arts de la tables

Mobile : 0615687757

Maisons-Laffitte 78600