

Dressed Enamel Brooch And Surrounded By Diamonds

9 500 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Gold

Description

Old brooch made of enamel representing a young woman with elegant hair and dressed in small rose-cut diamonds. The set is surrounded by rose-cut diamonds. The attachment system is with safety hook.

Period: 19th century

Main material: yellow gold, 750 thousandths, 18 carats and silver, own and swan hallmarks.

Proportions: Height: approximately 3.8 cm, width: approximately 2.8 cm, thickness: approximately 5.5 mm.

Net weight: about 9.6g.

Authentic old jewel - Work from the end of the 19th century. Some fine scratches on the enamel, not visible to the naked eye.

Our opinion: An old collector's item of jewellery.
