

Dressed Enamel Brooch And Surrounded By Diamonds

9 500 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Gold

Description

Old brooch made of enamel representing a young woman with elegant hair and dressed in small rose-cut diamonds. The set is surrounded by rose-cut diamonds. The attachment system is with safety hook. Period: 19th century Main material: yellow gold, 750 thousandths, 18 carats and silver, own and swan hallmarks. Proportions: Height: approximately 3.8 cm, width: approximately 2.8 cm, thickness: approximately 5.5 mm. Net weight: about 9.6g. Authentic old jewel - Work from the end of the 19th century. Some fine scratches on the enamel, not visible to the naked eye. Our opinion: An old collector's item of jewellery. To find out more Discover the product sheet for this Dressed Enamel Brooch And Its Surrounding Diamonds online. Find all our old jewelry on our Baume Jewelry store <https://www.proantic.com/en/950061-dressed-enamel-brooch-and-surrounded-by-diamonds.html>

Dealer

BAUME

The jewels expertise since 1975

Mobile : 05 49 41 18 19

28 rue de Magenta

Poitiers 86000