Passionate about painting, he began to work from nature, but very quickly abandoned this path to give free rein to his imagination. He drew his inspiration from the sky, more precisely from everything that emanates from the planet Mars. Indeed, the beings, animals or objects are all qualified as "Martians" in inscriptions invariably affixed to his productions, attesting to their celestial origin. Using markers or acrylic, André Labelle paints on all types of supports: packaging boxes, pebbles, tiles, pallets, branches, etc. Its palette is reduced
