Description

Virgin and child in polychrome walnut and carved in the round from the 18th century.
Slightly swaying, the Virgin stands upright, dressed in a dress with a flared neckline, an ample coat and a light veil covering her wavy hair.
She delicately supports the naked child Jesus on her left arm. This one holds in his left hand an apple while the right hand outlines the gesture of blessing.
Marie's face is leaning towards her child.
We will notice the great sweetness that emanates from their eyes turned to each other.
