Description

Fir wood cabinet with baroque carvings - mid 1700s H. 187cm - L. 156cm - D. 60cm Cabinet with two doors and two drawers, notched, in fir wood. The front is slightly convex, a typical process in the original region of this wardrobe. The entire surface is decorated with sculptures with Baroque cartouche motifs. The upper cornice is richly modeled and supported at the ends by equally sculpted capitals. Original accessories and internal division. Fittings also original, refined, with a particular note for the important lock entirely decorated with engravings. Very good condition. Furniture not yet restored; it is possible to customize the degree of restoration desired and the interior layout, thanks to the intervention of our laboratory. Austria Allgäu, mid 1700s. intaglio decoration
