Boch La Louvière Charles Catteau Art Deco Vase

180 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Earthenware

Height : 27cm

Description

Earthenware vase by Charles Catteau for Boch La Louvière (Belgium), polychrome decoration of stylized carnations, Art Deco period.Very good conditionHeight 27cmBoch La Louvière stamp, initials CT for Charles Catteau, decor 1049, shape 897.Decor listed in the catalog of works by Charles Catteau by Marc Pairon, Charles Catteau Foundation, page 193BOCH La LouvièreCreated in 1841, at La Louvière in Belgium, by Eugène and Victor, the Kéramis factory is a great classic pottery, whose flagship is the realization of decorations of Delft. The arrival in 1906 of designer Charles Catteau gave it new impetus. Present at the International Exhibition of Decorative Arts in 1925 and the Salon d'Automne in Paris, she worked for the art workshops of department stores - Primavera, Pomone and la

Dealer

Cornershop Design
20th Century Design
Tel : 0622750609
Mobile : +33 (0) 622750609

Paris 75004

Maitrise - influenced by Japanism, Africanism and the avant-garde.