Fireplace screen serving as a support for a very beautiful painting on fabric representing a bouquet of roses, the artist's signature at the bottom right "Cramier" and dated 1913. Our firewall is Louis XVI style, in solid walnut. It rests on four curved feet, decorated with acanthus leaves ending in a slight stylized winding. The two side uprights of the frame are topped with a pretty plume. The upper crosspiece is in the shape of a "policeman's hat" and carved in its center with an acanthus leaf decoration. The entire inner circumference is embellished with a frieze of rais de coeur. Note the presence of wetting on the pictorial side as well as stains on the back of our screen without any influence on the aesthetics of this object; Shipping costs by carrier contact us.
