Period : 20th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Ceramic

Diameter : 18 cm

Height : 6 cm

Description

Astonishing decorative ceramic cup: free form of a flattened sphere, with an angular edge. It is opened by three small circular holes with straight edges, close to a fourth ovoid opening whose edge is canted. Partial glaze, scarifications over the entire surface. It is signed below "R. Kapota" and "handmade" Little information on this ceramist: established in Paris, work probably dating from the end of the 50s or the beginning of the 60s.
