

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

---

Olga Vasilievna Choumansky Or Olga De Courville (1896-1971): "surrealist Composition" Romania

450 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Width : 56

Height : 43

|             |
|-------------|
| Description |
|-------------|

Olga Vassilievna Choumansky or Olga de Courville (1896-1971): "Surrealist composition", oil on panel signed lower right, dated 1970, dimensions: 43 x 56 cm.

Olga Vassilievna Choumansky or Olga de Courville, born March 8, 1896 and died in 1971, was a Romanian and then French decorator, designer, painter and costume designer. She exhibited at the Salon d'Automne, of which she was a member, in 1928, the composition En Bretagne, then made the following year a special exhibition at the Galerie Bernheim-Jeune<sup>1</sup>. A theater and film decorator, she teaches theatrical decoration at the Académie Malebranche (Paris) and at the Proscénium de Mona Sanghor. She is the wife of theater director Xavier de Courville (1894-1984). Francis Picabia writes about her: "I

|        |
|--------|
| Dealer |
|--------|

Art & antiquités Mouttet

Sell/Buy paintings and antics. Free estimations

Tel : 0033 6 16 39 07 20

49 av Thiers

Nice 6000

looked at this woman for a long time, her drawings, her paintings; she loves life which, however, has often proved to be bad for her. I have in front of me an artist..."