380 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Length : abat jour 40/ cave 23cm

Width : 23cm

Height : abat jour 56/ cave 28cm

Description

Curious liquor cellar in gilded bronze on a base with 4 griffin-shaped legs joined by a scrolled spacer on which a rotating glass holder pivots. Finished with a glass tank enamelled with floral and butterfly decorations in white and enhanced with gilding with a functional faucet.

Unfortunately the 8 glasses accompanying this cellar have disappeared! The lamp assembly is easy to remove to find the original use of this cellar.
