Description

Beautiful rectangular bottle in clear blown glass, finely engraved on three sides, complete with its original stopper.

Rectangular in shape with rounded shoulders, it is decorated with a wheel-engraved floral motif: stems, stylised leaves, and a finely executed large central flower. The original stopper, circular and slightly flattened, fits perfectly into the short, straight neck.

The precise and regular engraving reflects the craftsmanship of a high-quality artisanal production, likely from a European workshop dating to the late 19th century.
