Description

Comfortable gondola-shaped armchair, Louis XV style, in waxed and molded natural wood. It rests on four arched legs ending in a very discreet winding. The armrest supports are set back from the two front legs, the armrests are lined with a cuff. The upholstery and the covering fabric have recently been redone in the traditional way. The finishes are double braided. The cushion is filled with feathers, thus ensuring great comfort. It is also removable. A second seat of a slightly different model with the same fabric and the same finish is for sale on our gallery. Dimensions: height at the back 90 cm // seat 40 cm width 71 cm depth 74 cm
