

Abbeville Pewter Round Engraved Dish

350 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Tin

Diameter : 42,6 cm

Description

An engraved round pewter dish made in Abbeville (Somme, France) in 1782. This dish has engraved decoration a tree with stylized leaves and flowers at the top of which is perched a bird. The bird's wing is decorated with stylized flowering branches. The back of the dish bears the hallmark of "Guerlain-Dairaines in Abbeville" ; the Dairaines's Pierre-Honoré Nicolas signature (deceased before 1797) a merchant and pewtersmith.

Dimensions:

Diameter: 42,6 cm

Condition: good.

Dealer

Antiquités BASTIAN

House founded in 1871

Tel : +33 (0)3 88 32 45 93

24 place de la Cathédrale

Strasbourg 67000