Arms Knocker, Medici In Patinated Bronze 19th Renaissance Period

370 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Bronze

Width : 16 cm.

Height : 30 cm.

Description

I present to you this interesting door knocker, of good size, complete with all its elements. It is in patinated bronze. It was dismantled from a house in Cannes, Le Suquet about 30 years ago, it was repolished at that time but has never been put back on since. It is a Renaissance style work from the end of the 19th century. Lots of character.
