PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Broc De Chai Nineteenth. Oenology. Vine.

230 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Copper

Height : 48 cm

Description

An authentic, large 19th-century copper wine-cellar pitcher, featuring a baluster-style design. This piece served as a traditional measuring vessel for winemakers or wine merchants, dating back to the late Napoleonic era or the Restoration period. Key features:Crafted from heavy-gauge, hand-hammered copper.Robust, traditional construction with a tubular copper handle.A fine example of French folk-art coppersmithing, in excellent condition with no significant deformations or punctures.Ideal for collectors of viticultural or oenological artifacts, or for those who appreciate charming, rustic-style decor and country antiques. Dimensions: 48cm in height; 37 cm in width (including the handle). Weight: 3,8 kg.- This item is available for immediate purchase via PayPal;

Dealer

Le grenier du passé présent

Antiquité. Généraliste.

Tel : 0323700142

1 rue du Gué

Pavant 02310

we also accept bank transfers or French checks.- We do not conduct sales over the phone; all transactions must be arranged via email or through the Proantic messaging system.- We ensure careful shipping of all items, with insurance and tracking included. Shipping within France via Colissimo costs EUR20.