Description

Elegant Art Deco style pedestal table dating from the 1930s/1940s. The square section top features cutaway corners. This is made up of four triangles, themselves composed of two walnut veneer elements. This tray rests on a square cherry wood shaft, embellished with four grooves on each side and one on each corner. The whole stands on a solid cherry wood base with flowerbeds and a cutaway border. This piece can be covered with a removable glass top, providing aesthetics and protection. This small pedestal table, combining sobriety and refinement, can be used as occasional furniture in any style of interior.  Period: 1930/1940 Excellent condition after stripping in our workshop.
