Description

Superb and large basket sofa from the Louis XVI period in beech. It rests in front and on the back by 8 tapered and fluted feet. The set is assembled by molded belt crosspieces connected with the feet by assembly dice decorated with flowers. The file in 3 parts is composed of 2 sides forming the armrests strongly animated and molded in whiplash and finished with scrolls. The backrest is curved and molded all around. The whole is covered with a gray blue damask embossed velvet fabric in very good condition. Superb cabinet work for this bench, very comfortable and in excellent condition.
