Canéphore Folk Art, Carved Panel

880 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Oak

Width : 12 cm

Height : 45 cm

Description

Panel carved in relief representing a canephore, in the decorative repertoire of Greco-Roman antiquities, the or the canephore is a young person, most often, from a noble family, who, during religious ceremonies, carried the offerings and sacred objects of sacrifice in a wicker basket placed on the head. our folk art panel represents a man carrying a basket refined naive work in sculpture, wear on the ends, especially on the feet, dimensions:

Dealer

Antiquités Chanel
Antiquités Objets éclectiques et petits mobiliers
Tel : 06 71 08 33 05

Chanel.antiquites@gmail.com
Paris 75000