

Armand Cassagne Romantic Watercolor

210 EUR

Signature : Armand Cassagne

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Water color

Width : 59

Height : 44,7

Description

Panoramic view of a village on the edge of a stream executed in watercolor and signed lower left. Armand Cassagne (1823-1907) first influenced by English watercolourists, belongs to the Barbizon school. He was also a pupil of Eugène Viollet le Duc. The museum of Melun is mainly constituted by his collection that he bequeathed. Vincent Van Gogh studied in his early days the didactic manuals on drawing and watercolor by Armand Cassagne Dimensions of the watercolor 24x37.5 cm. It is framed in a modern gold baguette

Dealer

18 antiquités

Tableau et dessin

Mobile : 0616985782

3 Rue Joséphine

Paris 75018