Description

Rare Small Bench for Children, Louis XVI style, with structure in Beech painted in Very Light Grey. A Studded Leather covering, Light Brown color, envelops the backrest, the back and the seat of this Seat. The latter, traditionally made on Straps and Springs, is intended to be Comfortable and of Quality. It is in excellent condition. This Authentic property has two Armrests, with an Originally Moving shape underlined by Scrolled windings. Their front edges are Nicely Wrapped and equipped with Studded Leather Cuffs. The sides of these armrests are more modestly crafted. We find the same Scalloped Patterns, in Friezes, in the top of the Backrest, the rear uprights, as well as in the Cross member of the seat. This one is also embellished with Decors in Rosettes on its extremities and its center. The set rests on Six
