Description

Blin (circa 1950): "Young girl", mixed technique on paper 48 X 45 cm lined with Japanese paper. Signature not legible lower left. This young girl turning around, with her hair pulled back into a ponytail that highlights the roundness of her face and a pearl in her ear, is treated using a very modern palette and technique. When I acquired this lovely portrait, it was attached to the back of a card representing a landscape. Two works for the price of one! I had them separated and now put them up for sale. See also landscape. Do not hesitate to ask us for photos or additional information by email or telephone.
