Description

Robj, dispenser "Maurice Chevalier", Limoges porcelain, art deco, 20th century. Rare model. The company, founded by Jean Born in 1908, was developed by Lucien Willemetz who ran it alone from 1922. It was he who truly influenced and marked the style of ROBJ. He surrounds himself with sculptors, modellers and fire technicians. Most of the activity is devoted to the edition of humorous and utilitarian trinkets in porcelain or fine earthenware or glass, which borrow colored forms inspired by cubism, often anthropomorphic.
