990 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Restauré

Length : 220 cm - 86

Width : 133 cm - 52

Description

Malayer carpet around 1950 with a respective size of 133 cm x 222 cm, in very good condition, fringes, velvet and edges, slight wear from use.

Our design features an elaborate medallion, red and cream, featuring many stylized flowers.

The colors remain soft, red, chamois, beige, mouse gray and light gray; .

These rugs are knotted in strong, thick, shiny yarn, often dyed with natural dyes and spun by hand.

This yarn gives a resistant surface and a beautiful color palette.

They have in common that they are now woven with cotton warp threads and a weft thread between each row of knots.

The patterns are often geometric, but there are also very elaborate floral patterns.

Newer, post-1980 rugs are often made of synthetic colors and lower quality wool than older rugs.

In general, it can be said that Malayer rugs are very good rugs for everyday use.

the family of Hamadan rugs includes types of rugs, such as Bortchalou, Enjilas, Hosseinabad, Lilihan, Khamse, Zanjan and Malayer, rugs that we present.

These rugs are also sometimes sold under the general name dehamadan, rugs which encompass many villages.

This quality piece has been professionally and environmentally cleaned.
