Description

Pierre-Yves Trémois Môa le clown P., Flammarion, 1985. In-folio (48 x 30.5 cm), dry-printed cardboard folder, under metal cover with hollow title on the upper cover. Original case in Plexiglas (usual scratches). Limited edition of 200 copies including 177 on Rives vellum. This copy bears the number 105/177. Book imagined, laid out, engraved and calligraphic by Pierre-Yves Trémois (17 burins and etchings printed on the arm presses of the Ateliers Rigal). His meeting with Pipo, one of the greatest white clowns, is at the origin of this magnificent work. Trémois engraves the 17 plates of the book with his own hand, like a comic strip. The cover was also entirely designed by Trémois. Federico FELLINI writes the text "I Clowns".
