Description

Exceptional painting by its beauty and its format by the great Bordeaux painter Félix Carme born January 20, 1863 in Bordeaux and died February 17, 1938 in his same city, here representation of a double bouquet of oriental flowers on an entablature with as containers , a ceramic probably from Jules vieillard manufacture de bordeaux or a ceramic from Montigny sur loing with its flowery decoration and a basin with repoussé copper gadroons, all superbly brushed by the artist! Rendering of the flowers remarkable for its pictorial technique and its palette of colors giving in places a generous touch in the paste to accentuate the relief and the light! Impressionist touch in places, painting in its own juice, in very good condition, a small usual restoration on the back probably due to a small perforation from
