Description

Elegant mahogany campaign desk or marine desk from the 19th century from England

Indeed this furniture called "campaign furniture" or navy furniture was made during the 19th century and the beginning of the 20th century in England for the English navy.

Very nice desk composed of two pedestals and an upper part with a central drawer as well as green leather. Original leather with a very beautiful patina
The desk has the typical braces of campaign furniture

It has fixings to fix the upper part to the two pedestals (see last photo)
