

Korea, Furniture At Support Height Formed By Two Cabinets, XIXth

2 800 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Description

Furniture at support height formed by two cabinets, stackable, in molded softwood, stained and veneered, on the front, with khaki veneer (black zebra brown exotic wood,) opening with four leaves and three small drawers. Angles, hinges and ring closure system on cut brass plate. Mobile side carrying handles in patinated iron. H.: 112.5 cm - Length. : 84.5 - Depth. : 39cm. , some small wear, chips, cracks, lifting on veneer and angles. Korea - Choson Period - 19th. Very good state. The persimmon, also called "Japanese persimmon" is a tree of the Ebanaceae family, originating from China, mainly cultivated for its fruit, the persimmon, its bark is particularly decorative.

Dealer

Antiquités Chanel

Antiquités Objets éclectiques et petits mobiliers

Tel : 06 71 08 33 05

Chanel.antiquites@gmail.com

Paris 75000