PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Iznik Style Pitcher, Samson? Nineteenth Century

350 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : En l'état

Material : Earthenware

Width : 20

Height : 29

Depth : 14

Description

A pitcher in the style of Turkish Renaissance Iznik pottery. Decorated with beautiful floral designs including, among others, tulip flowers. The slender handle and openwork design complete the beauty of the pitcher. Glazed ceramic, hand painted. Samson, France? 19th century. Signature on the underside. Height 29 cm, width 20 cm, depth 14 cm. State of preservation as seen in the photographs, quite good, although the spout is glued, with damage also visible at the level of the tap hole.

Dealer

Galerie la Belle Epoque

Antiquaire généraliste

Tel : +48 601852083

Bukowska 17

Poznan 60193