Description

We present this small handkerchief table (flying) easy to move. It is made of veneer (rosewood and rosewood). A drawer on one side and three false drawers on the other three sides. The top pivots and the four flaps open like an unfolding handkerchief. The legs are curved Louis XV style, Napoleon III period. In the crotch, lower part, a double tray decorated with a small ingot mold, the whole is decorated with bronze. When the four handkerchiefs are unfolded we find a flat part covered with a green felt, we can say that at this moment this pretty little very decorative table becomes a games table. (E)
