Description

Bronze with brown patina signed Louis Vidal (1831-1892), French animal sculptor of the 19th century who became blind in his youth. "The Bull" is one of these best-known works. Made in 1867, this meticulously sculpted bronze highlights the power of this animal synonymous with vitality. Having a strong symbolism, the bull is represented here standing, head down and turned towards the viewer. Executed perfectly by the artist, this work will delight nature lovers and collectors.
