

Architectural Project For A Very Large Church, Circa 1760-80

1 500 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Paper

Width : 36,2 cm

Height : 18,2 cm

Description

Beautiful architectural project representing the elevation of the facade and the lengthwise section of a very large cathedral or abbey church.

The project can be compared to the work of Soufflot for the Sainte-Geneviève church (current Panthéon), of Contant d'Ivry for the Madeleine. On the reverse, some pencil sketches of the ground plan possibly relating to the same building.

Pen in black ink and brown wash on laid paper

France, around 1760-80

Dimensions of the drawing: 18.2 cm by 36.2 cm
