accomplished expressions of Art Déco in Scandinavian silversmithing. Harald Nielsen joined Georg Jensen as an apprentice in 1909, became the founder's brother-in-law, and devoted more than half a century to the silversmithy. After Georg Jensen's death in 1935, he made it his life's work to carry on the master's legacy, directing the manufacture from 1954 to 1962.
Georg Jensen silver works are held among the masterpieces of the Designmuseum Danmark in Copenhagen, as well as in the collections of the Museum of Modern Art in New York and the Koldinghus Museum, Denmark.
