Description

Decorated with rosebuds and climbing ivy, this beautiful Louis XV style mirror shines with summery joy. The mirror, crowned with a basket of grapes, celebrates the generosity of the countryside that accompanies the harvest and the grape harvest. Generous windings give a beautiful base to the mirror and structure its symmetry. The set is in very good condition and will tastefully decorate a country house, a castle or the interior of a city dweller in search of bucolic poetry!
