Description

Rare and beautiful model of Provençal bonnetière in walnut, Louis XV style, late 18th century - early 19th century. Arched legs, low molded and richly carved crosspiece, uprights worked at the top and bottom, high crosspiece carved with a large relief, constable's hat cornice, door with two molded panels. These panels are in two parts sliced in the same piece of wood in order to oppose them and to emphasize the beauty of this one. Good general condition (restored).
