Description

Superb blue oven ceramic and gilded bronze set consisting of a large clock and an important pair of candlesticks with six sconces. Refined, this urn-shaped clock rests on a rectangular base in gilded bronze, composed of acanthus leaves, foliage and two mythological lions. Four volute feet support the whole. In the center, the circular dial is crowned with a node in the style of Louis XVI. On the sides, large bronze elements decorate the urn. This is surmounted by a lion's head ending in a pine cone. Two large candlesticks accompany this clock. Also in midnight blue ceramic and gilded bronze, they have six volute arms of light. The central part depicting an urn is decorated with a descent of foliage and flowers, accompanied by chiseled bronze elements. The quadripod foot is sculpted
