Description

Charming little chest of drawers from the Directoire period in solid walnut, with a wooden top with a mitred frame. It opens with 1 narrow drawer in the belt, using a notch located below. Three drawers of the same height complete the storage offer, which open using bronze buttons: they are fitted with an entrance, also in bronze, as well as a lock in working order, accompanied by with an adjusted wrench. Note that the fittings are later than the furniture. On each side, the uprights are covered with wooden pilasters, which embellish the front of this piece of furniture. Sleek and sober, this small chest of drawers will fit into any type of decoration: the beautiful shades of Walnut can be used in the most modern interiors.  Period: Early 19th century
