Description

18th century work. Superb series of 6 chairs all in lacquered wood with cartridges with different decorations of child playing scene, numerous garlands and floral baskets, arabesques and others painted on all the chairs. Very high quality work with a lot of character, patties completely reupholstered by us. Many wrinkles of time on all the chairs, quite a rare model on the Art market. Upholsterer from father to son since 1880, working with high quality fabric and trimmings.
