Description

Collar Stand

France

19th century

Iron

H. Approx. 15 cm

Iron haremcollar with repoussé decoration of a battle scene featuring nine horsemen in armour in a late Mannerist style.

A symbol of the officer, and derived from the colletin, the harem-collar is a piece of armour placed around the neck and more particularly around the knight's collar.

A similar example is kept at the Musée d'Orbigny-Bernon in La Rochelle.
