

Mask

1 200 EUR

Signature : Makonde

Period : 20th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Length : 25 cm

Width : 15 cm

Height : 19,5 cm

Description

Crest mask representing a face wearing a labret at the level of the upper lip. This type of mask is called "Lipiko" and was used during initiation ceremonies. He embodies an idealized ancestor.

Makonde people, Tanzania or Mozambique

Early 20th century

Dim: 25 x 15 x 19.5 cm

Wood, pigment, fabric. Slight cracks and slight lack

Provenance: former collection of a Swiss diplomat.

Dealer

Curiositas

Arts premiers, archéologie

Mobile : 0637773819

Ternand 69620