Description

This set of four flying chairs painted black has a slender and simply refined line. The backs of the chairs consist of a vertical bar, embellished with a light golden pattern. The feet are also equipped with these luminous keys. The patina is rather pretty, time has discreetly done its work without hurting the pieces. The seats have been rid of an unsightly and worn fabric, giving free rein to all decorative desires. This set of 4 chairs can integrate classic interiors as it will bring a quaint chic to a more contemporary room. Their lightness makes it possible to decorate small spaces, and adapts perfectly to living room layouts due to their modest height. seat height: 420 mm
