Description

Sylvain Vigny was born in Vienna in Austria self-taught artist he arrived in France in 1929, he discovered Nice in 1934 settled there. He will be a regular at the Romanin Art Gallery opened by Jean Moulin. A carnival universe where the tragic mixes with the burlesque, where, as with Goya, reality rubs shoulders with fantasy. This visionary and romantic expressionist, whose violent writing recalls that of Daumier, is haunted, fascinated by the face. Gérald Shurr Exhibits in New York, Paris, Nice, Geneva. Measures with frame 111x93.
