

Kwere Mask, Tanzania

980 EUR

Signature : Kwere

Period : 20th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Material : Paper

Height : 32 cm

Description

Mask with an almost oval face presenting a face with rectangular eyes. The open mouth is also rectangular. It is surrounded by a vegetable resin used to maintain teeth embedded in the wood. Only five teeth remain. The eyebrows as well as the scarifications on the cheeks, the forehead and the nose are engraved on the mask.

Wood with a patina of use, vegetable resin, teeth

H: 32 cm

Kwere people, Tanzania Mid 20th century

Sold with its base

Dealer

Curiositas

Arts premiers, archéologie

Mobile : 0637773819

Ternand 69620