Description

Chinese rug, Beijing royal blue called Beijing, "fine antique", circa 1920.

Made with Zen simplicity, this magnificent Chinese rug from the beginning of the century has a very unusual medallion in size and design. The medallion makes this rug harmonious and strikingly beautiful. Doubly framed, it is inhabited by an elegant set of flowers. The dark blue colored field is held in place by the outer border containing a beautiful display of loosely interwoven Asian flowers.

Size : 240x148 cm

Condition : Small harmonious wear due to its age
