Description

(google translate) Furniture made in the second half of the 19th century. Furniture structure in oak and mahogany. Decorative fittings in gilded bronze, of very good quality. The set consists of a bookcase, a desk and an armchair. Bookcase with three doors, central section with brass trellis. Double-sided desk, decorative on four sides. On the sides, in addition, sliding auxiliary planes. Desk top covered in leather (leather to be replaced due to damage). Armchair in solid mahogany with original thick leather seat preserved. Very good state of preservation. The piece of furniture requires a cosmetic restoration - the varnish needs to be refreshed and the leather of the top needs to be replaced.
