Description

This oil on canvas represents a specialty erotic scene of the painter. The airy touch and pastel colours are distinctive features of the German painter's style. The oils on canvas of this painter are very rare, only a few are known. Illustrator, the painter's engravings are relatively numerous on the market. In its juice, the painting needs to be cleaned to regain its original colors. The canvas seems to have taken moisture (nothing serious, see photos of the back). The paint is a bit cracked. The painting is signed at the bottom right. The painting is sold with a frame to restore. Dimensions with frame: 79 x 58 cm. Dimensions without frame: 89 x 68 cm. Otto Schoff (1884-1938) Schoff grew up in Bremen, and studied as a decorator at the School of Decorative Arts in Bremen, among others with

Joseph Högg, then in Frankfurt am Main and in Darmstadt with Otto Linnemann and Friedrich Wilhelm Kleukens. Between 1909 and 1914 he was taught by Emil Orlik at the Institute of Education of the Royal Museum of Applied Arts in Berlin, and in 1912 he received the KKG Medal of Recognition and a scholarship for Paris from the city of Bremen. In 1914, he exhibited at the Graphic Cabinet J.B. Neumann in Berlin. His artistic activity was limited by the beginning of the First World War. It was not until 1920 that many graphic leaflets and folders were created, among others by Fritz Gurlitt and Alfred Fleischheim. In the following years Schoff participated in the Great Berlin Art Exhibition, the Berlin Art Fair and the Secession of Berlin. Schoff died on 3 July 1938, after the Gestapo seized part of his paintings in the Nollendorfplatz workshop the day before. Photos are taken in natural light. Neat packaging. Shipping costs supported by the buyer. I remain at your disposal for any further information and photos.
