Description

Napoleon III fireplace in Noir de Mazy and Incarnat Turquin-Rouge, marbles from the Languedoc, France. Ca.1860-1875. This pleasant fireplace was found in Belgium, the country where you could find the blackest black marble that exist: Noir de Mazy. This quarry is empty since many years. The rounded, double moulded shelf rest above a linteau, enhanced by facet lozenges in striking red marble. The combination of these two marbles gives great vivid and movements. All fireplaces from Antique Fireplaces First will be delivered with old marble floortiles to make a frontfloor. Worldwide shippings. Delivery in Europe can be done by Antique Fireplaces First: 'In House Delivery'. Easy to re-install.
