Description

Oil on canvas - Green composition - Stacha Halpern (1919 - 1969) Signed lower right Dating from 1963 This work was exhibited at the Blumenthal-Mommaton Gallery, rue 159 fbg Saint-Honoré, Paris 8th (Attested in the 1950s and 60) . Visible at the Courcelles Antiquités Gallery, at 97 rue de Courcelles, in the 17th arrondissement of Paris. Born in 1919 and died in 1969, Stanislav "Stacha" Halpern (October 20, 1919 - January 28, 1969) was a Polish painter and sculptor, naturalized Australian. After the Nazi invasion of Poland in 1936, he emigrated to Australia. A decade later, he became a naturalized Australian citizen. Living in Melbourne for much of his early career, he painted bold semi-abstract works of street life. Later, he travels through Europe and experiments with pure abstraction
